Business

Consideration and possible action: Amending the Santa Fe, Texas Police Officers Civil Service Commission Rules and Regulations by adopting provision(s) for reimbursement of provided clothing and equipment to police officers who leave the Department prior to officer's third year anniversary date.

Pam Wood told the board she had consulted with Ellis Ortego, City Attorney. He recommends putting into the local rules "Rule 21. Reimbursement of Provided Clothing and Equipment Any dispute between the City and an officer regarding reimbursement of provided clothing and equipment and other items as provided in the Collective Bargaining Agreement 2015, Article IX, Section IV shall be resolved by the City of Santa Fe Texas Civil Service Commission in accordance with the provisions of Rule 18." Richie Pearson made a motion to amend the Santa Fe, Texas Police Officers Civil Service Commission Rules and Regulations by adding Rule 21 for reimbursement of provided clothing and equipment and other items as provided in the Collective Bargaining Agreement 2015, Article IX, Section IV who leave the Department prior to officer's third anniversary date, Bill Reitmeyer seconded. The motion passed the roll call vote unanimously.

Future meetings as needed.

Richie Pearson made a motion to adjourn the meeting, seconded by Mark Pittman. The meeting adjourned at 9:17 a.m.
